

Montana farm to School Regional Showcases

See farm to school in action near you!

WHAT: This spring, two Montana Farm to School Regional Showcases provide opportunities for anyone interested in the program to see how sites around the state successfully implement farm to school. Attendees will learn how individual school teams implement farm to school in the cafeteria, classroom, and community; and will be equipped with the information and resources to start or grow farm to school in their community. Those in attendance will also get the inside scoop on how stakeholders work together successfully. Specific examples will help anyone wanting to grow the movement in their community. Lunch is provided.

WHO: Anyone interested in being part of growing a vibrant farm to school program!

REGISTER: Space is limited, so register early (for free) at: <http://bit.ly/32gATyQ>

Fairview, MT - Wednesday, March 18 - 9-2p

Experience farm to school in action in Fairview. Attendees will join Fairview students in celebration of Ag Day and tour the school's garden. For more information: Faith Oakland, Montana Farm to School Coach, faith.oakland@montana.edu.

Hardin, MT - Wednesday, May 6

Learn how Hardin School District implements farm to school, as they incorporate Native foods and traditional techniques into school curriculum. For more information: Ginger Buchanan, Montana Farm to School Coach, ginger.buchanan@montana.edu.

This material is based upon work that is supported by the Food and Nutrition Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture. USDA is an equal opportunity provider, employer, and lender.